RE: United States v. Ashley Grayson et. al.
2:23-cr-20121-JPM

Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Government has provided discovery in the Grayson et. al. case. Please be advised as follows:

1. As to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, on March 14, 2024, the United States emailed counsel in regard to recently obtained supplemental discovery. Counsel for the United States became aware of these items during a witness preparation meeting and through subsequent conversations with the case agent. These items are media shared with the case agent from various sources including but not limited to Olivia Johnson and the victim Derricka Harwell.
2. As referenced in the March 14, 2024, this disclosure as included recorded witness interviews. These are interviews of which you were already aware.
3. The United States is cognizant of its obligation under Brady v. Maryland.
4. The United States requests any and all reciprocal discovery and notice to which it is entitled pursuant to Rule 16 and the local rules.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss this matter further, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Kevin G. Ritz
United States Attorney
